All profits raised through this event will go towards cultural programming and leadership development through the joint Youth Council initiative by Southeast Child and Family Services and Shawenim Abinoojii.

We are registering a limited and safe number of paid entries on a first come, first served basis and will be abiding by provincial health regulations. To confirm your participation, please complete the attached registration form. Deadline for registration is August 19, 2022.

To make this a successful annual event we are seeking corporate sponsors:
