3RD ANNUAL FUNDRAISING GOLF TOURNAMENT

SOUTHEAST CHILD & FAMILY SERVICES | SHAWENIM ABINOOJII INC.

'Bimatoo Wabishke Maiingain' ("Running White Wolves") is the name gifted in ceremony to the Southeast Child and Family Services (SECFS) and Shawenim Abinoojii Inc. (SAI) Youth Council. The Youth Council offers ongoing input and feedback to the SECFS and SAI programs, services, and approach. Plus, this forum builds the Youth Council members' cultural identity as Anishinaabe leaders for their communities. This year, SECFS and SAI are again fundraising to provide our young people from the Southeast region the experience for more leadership development and capacity building experiences with mentorship opportunities to engage with Elders.

The Running White Wolves Youth Council is a dedicated group of 12 First Nation youth, ages 15 to 25, from the eight Southeast First Nations - Poplar River, Berens River, Bloodvein, Brokenhead, Little Grand Rapids, Pauingassi, Black River and Hollow Water. The main purpose of the Youth Council is to provide input and feedback on programming aimed towards children and youth living in and from their community and engage them as leaders with facilitating community-based programs such as the Summer Day Camps and Family Camps. This year we are excited to host in-person gathering opportunities between the Running White Wolves and SAI's Elders Advisory Circle.

Funds raised through this year's SAI-SECFS Golf Tournament will go to supporting the leadership capacity and development of our Running White Wolves Youth Council by providing their Elders' teachings and learning opportunities. These community-based initiatives will allow for cultural growth in the First Nations and provide opportunities for the youth maintain their traditional and cultural practices to share with their families. The Youth Council will take the lead to encourage and build positive working relationships amongst regional entities and First Nations communities working to serve our children, youth, and families.

Our youth are the current leaders of our communities and inspire children in their communities. The Running White Wolves, Elders Advisory Circle, and the SAI-SECFS Fundraising Colf Tournament Planning Committee thanks you in advance for your consideration to making a positive impact with us. We look forward to seeing you on July 26, 2023, for tee off!
